

Claudia Bodan- Acuna
SVP , Market Manager

Claudia S. Bodan – Acuna A native of Nicaragua who became an Angelina at the age of 5 and has since lived in Los Angeles received her BA from the University of Southern California majoring in Corporate Finance. Her professional career has been dedicated to helping business owners grow their business to the next level by being tenacious in providing flexible and creative solutions to meet their business needs.

She is Senior Vice President, Market Manager with Bank of America Business Banking. Mrs. Bodan-Acuna has been in the banking industry for 16 years. One of her passions is to serve the business community. She was awarded the access to capital banker of the year award in 2011 by the Department of Commerce and a recipient of the 2012 Dulcinea Award for her leadership endeavors through out the Finance community. She has served as President to the National Latina Business Women Association- Los Angeles chapter, California State President for DECA/ DEX a marketing organization designed to help college students develop their business communication skills, sat on numerous committees and boards such as USC Alumni associations, Latino Business Association, National Association Women Business Owners, Los Angeles Minority Business Opportunity Center, member of the Latino Deal Makers and many others. She is an active member and volunteer of many community and business organizations throughout Los Angeles.

At Bank of America she is part of the Central LA Regional Council, served on the Pacific Southwest Regional Executive Council 2008-2009, Chairs the Greater LA Latino Leadership Team, Co chaired Greater LA LEAD, Central LA Business Banking GWIM Champion, Member of the Business Banking West Diversity & Inclusion council and is part of the California Women Leaders Network which is a selective group of women have the opportunity to meet and network with other talented women leaders across the GCB, GWIM, Business Banking, and GBAM businesses throughout California, while participating in a focused program comprised of Bank of America leaders, external speakers, and leadership development activities.

Personal interests include spending time with her two children Joseph, Kayla and husband, her passion for theatrical productions, and being involved with Faith Community Church and The Girl Scouts of America.