

Donna M. Estacio is Director of State and Local Government Affairs for American Airlines. Prior to joining American Airlines in 2010, Ms. Estacio held multiple positions as a public servant for a span of over a decade. She last served as director of state relations for the city of Los Angeles. She also served as senior legislative deputy for Los Angeles City Council's 6th District and served as committee consultant for the California Assembly Budget and Finance Committee. Prior to entering government service, Ms. Estacio taught elementary school in South Los Angeles as part of the District Intern program.

Donna is a native of Pasadena, CA, and was appointed to the city's Recreation and Parks Commission in 2011. She currently serves on the board of the LA Area Chamber of Commerce and the executive committee of the LA County Economic Development Corporation. She earned her B.A. in Sociology from the University of California, Los Angeles and an M.P.P. from Princeton University.